They aren't as straight-forward as decimal or fractional odds.

If your odds are -200, you would need to bet $200 to win $100.

A $10 bet with -200 odds would give you $5 plus your original $10 bet back.

The moneyline is where it differs.

A $250 bet on the Celtics on the moneyline, meaning if they win the game by any margin the bet wins, would win $100 (plus a return of the original $250 bet).

Both have similar principles.

In America, fractional odds are most commonly used in futures betting where almost all the odds have a denominator of 1, making them easier to understand.

Decimal odds

For example, it's fairly common to see American odds of -115, but that converts to 20-23 in fractional odds.

History of sports betting in Zimbabwe As we said back in the intro paragraph, Zimbabwe online betting is quite new around so it cannot be described as a tradition - as it happens in other African nations.

However, that didn't stop local bettors to place their bets and enjoying their favorite sports at their best, as there has always been the option to go to local betting shops in Zimbabwe in order to do it.

Here's how to bet in-play on live boxing to give yourself the best chance possible of beating the bookies.

Also, it needs to be simpler to deal with it, as the comfortability factor is the main point of mobile betting to start with.
